

Weekday wines

Decanter's tasting team, Christelle Guibert and Mark O'Halleron, scour the shelves of the UK's high street and independent merchants for the best, easy-drinking bottles for midweek suppers - all ready to enjoy now and priced between £5 and £15

Château Thivin, Clos Bertrand, Côte de Brouilly, Beaujolais, France 2010 ★★★★★ 16.5

£14.10 Domaine Direct

Thivin can trace its history back to the 14th century. This cuvée is packed with sweet cherry and blueberry aromas, underpinned with a distinct earthy layer. The palate is breezy and crisp, with high-toned cranberry and redcurrant flavours. Alc: 13.5%

Decanter magazine

May 2012

Circulation: 40,000